

Drakaríðendr Appalachia

A Branch within the Empire of Medieval Pursuits

The Drakaríðendr Appalachia is located in Catlettsburg, KY. We are based on the Viking Era of 1100 A.D. with a focus on Equestrian Archery Riders. Our goal is to be a place of learning, fun, and creativity, and the history of the Medieval World.

Heraldry: Azure, Argent Horse head dexter, flamant wings ascendant

Leadership:

1. All leaders must be members in good standing with the EMP and Drakaríðendr Appalachia for a period not less than one (1) year, with the exception of the first year.
2. All leaders are expected to participate in events, appropriate meetings, and branch functions to the best of their ability.
3. All leaders must remember they are servants of the people.
4. Choosing a Lord:
  - a. The Lord is chosen by a vote of the members.
  - b. During the first year, the founder shall be Lord for a period of two years for the establishment of the group.
  - c. Afterwards, the Lord may be challenged by any citizen of the branch who has met the 1-year requirement.
  - d. A citizen challenger must declare their intent to vie for the office of Lord no less than thirty (30) days prior to
  - e. If there are no challengers and the Lord desires to continue in their position, no change of the Lord will be made.

- f. If a Lord chooses to step down before the end of their term, the most recent Lord will be offered to fill the position for the remainder of that term or to call for a vote and oversee the selection of a new Lord.
5. The Lord is responsible for:
- a. The governance of the branch and promoting archery activities, the arts, and service among their people.
  - b. Ensuring the Branch holds at least one event per annum and files the appropriate post-event report.
  - c. Bringing to the attention of the Count/Countess, Coronet, and/or the Crown those individuals who deserve recognition through the awards system by ensuring that the Count/Countess is apprised of nominations given at the Coronet and/or Crown level.

Website/Facebook:

Founding Members:

Brittany Robinette Christian, Persona Name: Evangel

Seth Christian

Kaycee Jackson

Brandy Jackson

Cati Christian